FCF 2 HRS | $59MF $35/hr. ETF (I/II)

Thanks for sharing all that with me. For a home your size, we usually recommend about 2 hours for the first cleaning. Normally that would cost around $150 - that's the national average.

Instead of $150, with ForeverClean, every 2-hour cleaning is just around $46 every time.

Here's what I can do for you - your first 2 hours are completely free, and all you pay today is $19. How does that sound for you?

Sales Pitch pt. 2

FCF 2 HRS | $59MF $35/hr. ETF (II/II)

So here's how ForeverClean works, quick and simple.

Today, you only pay $19. That covers your first month of membership, and your first 2 hours of cleaning are completely free.

After that, your membership continues at $59 a month, billed on the same date each month, until you cancel. That's what keeps your discounted rate of around $23/hour going for every cleaning after your first one, and you can cancel anytime.

The only thing to flag is a small early cancellation fee if you end it before 6 paid months. It's $35 times the hours of your first cleaning, so in your case that would be $70

FCF 3 HRS | $59MF $35/hr. ETF (I/II)

Thanks for sharing all that with me. For a home your size, we usually recommend about 3 hours for the first cleaning. Normally that would cost around $225 - that's the national average.

Instead of $225, with ForeverClean, every 3-hour cleaning is just around $69 every time.

Here's what I can do for you - your first 3 hours are completely free, and all you pay today is $19. How does that sound for you?

Sales Pitch – Negotiate (I/II)

Step 1: Acknowledge

Step 2: Ask Qualifying Question/s & Negotiate

Step 2.1: Ask Qualifying Questions

Is the membership not a good fit because of the cost, there is a commitment, or because you just don't feel you need regular cleanings right now?

Step 2.2: Adjust MF or MCT based on trigger

If trigger is MF = reduce to $54, then to $49 if necessary
If trigger is MCT duration = offer to shorten
If triggers are both MF and MCT duration = offer reducing both
If C's response to the question/s does not have anything to do with cost or commitment, proceed to Step 3

If C agrees, proceed to booking
If C declines, proceed to Step 3

Step 3

Sales Pitch – Negotiate (II/II)

Step 3: Highlight FC Value + Offer One Time Cleaning/Trial Cleaning

I totally understand that your (move-in/out, event) cleaning is the priority right now, and we're happy to take care of that for you. If the membership isn't the right fit, no worries at all!

You can try our service at a discounted rate of $X for 30 days. You can cancel with no obligation anytime within those 30 days if it's not the right fit. If you don't cancel within 30 days, the membership will automatically continue at $59 per month with a 6-month minimum commitment. If you cancel before completing 6 paid months of membership, a $99 early termination fee applies.

Does this option work better for you?

Proceed to Booking

Sales Pitch – One-Time Only Cleaning (I/III)

Step 1: Acknowledge and Present One-Time Cleaning Option

Got it! We'd be happy to take care of that for you!

For standard one-time cleanings, this would be at our regular price of $X for X hours. If the cleaning goes over 3 hours, I can also apply a special discount to bring it down to $Y.

Does this work for what you need today?

One-Time Clean pt. 2

Sales Pitch – One-Time Only Cleaning (II/III)

Step 2: Gauge Openness to Membership

Out of curiosity, if this first cleaning ends up being super helpful, do you see yourself needing this kind of help every so often?

I only ask because a lot of our customers start with a one-time clean but end up finding value in having ongoing support, and our ForeverClean membership could save you up to 60% each time you have a cleaning. It starts as low as ($59) a month, and the savings from today alone could already make up for it. Would you like me to walk you through what that could look like?

Step 3: Qualify the Objection

Note to agent: If the Customer says no the the membership, explore "why" to better match their needs.

Totally fair. Just so I can better understand, is it more about the cost, because there's a commitment, or do you just feel like you don't need regular cleanings right now?

One-Time Clean pt. 3

Sales Pitch – One-Time Only Cleaning (III/III)

Step 4: Negotiate

If reason for declining membership is MF:
For $59 cohort: reduce to $54, then to $49 if necessary

If reason for declining membership is MCT duration = offer to shorten

If reason for declining membership are both MF and MCT duration = offer reducing both

If C's response to the question does not have anything to do with cost/commitment, proceed to booking OTC Clean

If the C compared the FC ETF and One-Time Cleaning Rate:
That's why the FC membership offers better value overall. It's designed for ongoing service, but even if your plans change unexpectedly, the early termination fee is a flat rate of $35/hr based on the hours of your first cleaning. It's still lower than the ($X) one-time cleaning rate, so you're getting the best rate either way.

Proceed to Booking

Phase 6: Booking Appointment

So, if that checks out with you, let's get you one of the vouchers and set-up the cleaning. I just need your card details. Are we going to use a credit or debit card?

May I ask for your ZIP code?

What date would you like us to come and clean?

(Note: If customer has no exact date yet, you can say one of the ff-)

We can book the appointment as early as (Mention 2 days from today), will that work for you?

We can make a standing appointment for you and then change it later on once you have the exact date on when you'd like to have the cleaning.

Booking Proper | Same Day Booking

Phase 6: Same-Day Appointment

Normally we recommend a 2-day window to allow the cleaning professionals to take the appointment. (Try to confirm if C will agree to book 2 days from today). Would (suggest 2 days from today) work for you?

If C agrees: book the cleaning

If C declines, offer an appointment for tomorrow:
Same-day appointments are a special priority option for customers who have worked with cleaners in the platform before. Cleaners have the option to accept these appointments as repeat bookings. Since this is your first time with us, it may be a little harder to secure a same-day slot, so we always recommend booking at least two days in advance to ensure availability.

I'd be happy to try to find a cleaner for tomorrow if that works for you! While we can't always guarantee availability on short notice, I'll do my best to make it happen. To ensure we can accommodate you, it might be helpful to provide an alternate date that works for you.

Booking Proper

Phase 7: Booking Proper

I am now setting up your appointment. To ensure we cover all the bases, can you tell me:

- Preferred Appointment Date
- Alternate Appointment Date
- Complete Address
- Full Name
- Customer's Email

Value Statements - 24/7 Customer Service

S1: Unlike most cleaning companies, we offer 24/7 support across the board -not just for customer service, but for sales and scheduling too. You may have noticed how quickly we called you -that's not typical. Other companies may take hours or days to respond, if they reply at all.

With Homeaglow, you also get access to a 24/7 online dashboard, so you can schedule or reschedule your cleanings anytime, without needing to wait on emails or phone calls.

And if anything isn't up to your expectations after a cleaning, our round-the-clock Customer Support Team is ready to jump in and make it right.

S2: What really sets Homeaglow apart from other cleaning companies is that we have a dedicated 24/7 Customer Support Team. This means that anytime you need help with your appointments, we're always with you to make sure that everything goes smoothly.

S3: Most of our customers enjoy the benefit of knowing that we have a 24/7 Customer Support Team ready to assist anytime. This means that if something wasn't to your liking after an appointment, you can let us know and we'd be happy to make it right for you.

Value Statements - Price and Cost Efficiency

S1: Our FC Membership is built for value. Members enjoy rates up to 60% lower than traditional cleaning companies—without compromising on quality.

Now you might be wondering how we do that. Because we've streamlined operations with an online dashboard, we save on customer service costs -and we pass those savings directly on to you.

It's cost-efficient, high-quality cleaning that aligns with your budget perfectly.

S2: Our FC Membership is designed to give our customers heavily-discounted rates on their subsequent cleanings. This means that you get to enjoy quality, cost-efficient cleaning that aligns with your budget.

S3: What our members love about their FC Membership is that they get to enjoy rates that are up to 60% lower than other cleaning companies. This means you get to enjoy better quality cleaning service at a more affordable cost.

Value Statements - Schedule Flexibility

S1: Our customers love their Account Dashboard. This gives you full control and freedom to manage your appointments - change the date, the time, even book as many or as few cleanings as it fits into your schedule.

S2: The beauty of your FC Membership is that it comes with your own personal Dashboard. This means that you can manage your appointments in minutes, making it easier and more seamless for you to plan your schedule.

Value Statements - Top-Rated Cleaners

S1: Most of our customers truly value the peace of mind they get knowing every cleaner on the Homeaglow platform is thoroughly vetted, with strict criminal and background checks. But we go beyond safety, we focus on quality too.

Just to share with you, 91.4% of jobs are completed by cleaners with a 4.5-star rating or higher.

And because we collect ratings and reviews after every appointment, we're able to continually curate the best professionals. Unlike the gray market, where underperforming cleaners can bounce between clients, Homeaglow ensures only top-rated, trustworthy cleaners stay on our platform -so you always get someone who knows how to deliver a great clean.

S2: Hey you know most of our customers appreciate that all of the cleaning professionals who get on board the platform are thoroughly vetted and have gone through strict criminal and background checking. This gives you the peace of mind, knowing that the person cleaning your home is someone who is trustworthy, and has the experience to do job excellently.

Value Statements – Cleaning Professional Availability

One of the biggest advantages of booking through us is the reliability at scale.

With over 20,000 cleaning professionals on our platform, you're never left hanging. If your cleaner is unavailable, whether it's last-minute or due to illness, we've got qualified backups ready to step in.

In fact, over 90% of cleaning requests get picked up, and more than half of them are claimed within just 50 minutes of booking.

That kind of speed and dependability is something you won't find with traditional cleaning companies.

Common Objections and Sample Rebuttals

- Already Found a Cleaner
- Need to Consult Spouse
- Not Interested
- Thinks This Is A Scam
- Does Not Want To Give Card info.
- Negative Review
- Pricing Concerns
- Wants To Pay in Cash
- Don’t Want A Membership
- Not At This Time / I’m Not Ready To Book
- Thinks Competitors Are More Affordable
- Will Not Use Service Often

Objections - Already Found a Cleaner

E: Hey it's great to hear that you have someone working to clean your home.

C: I just want to make sure you have all the information you need. Correct me if I'm wrong, it looks like it's really important that you have your home regularly cleaned. Is this correct?

O: Thanks for sharing those with me. What sets Homeaglow apart (mention HAG's competitive advantages), in fact, what our long-term customers truly love about their FC membership is (mention competitive pricing vs. local market rate).

C: Did my explanation of how our FC membership brings your cost per clean well below industry average help? Let's review our terms and lock in your first cleaning!

Simplified ECOC:

Totally understand. It sounds like you've got someone you're already comfortable with, which is great. Just to be sure, are you completely locked in with them or more just trying them out for now? I only ask because we've completed over 2.6 million cleanings, and 91.4% of those were done by cleaners rated 4.5 stars or higher. So if you ever need a reliable backup or want to compare, we'd love to be that option.

Objections – Doesn't Want To Give Card Info.

E: Hey with how much fraud went up last year, I completely understand your hesitation to provide your card details over the phone.

C: I want to be sure that we don't leave any stones unturned before we move forward. If I'm hearing this right, you see how our service can help you and are just concerned about the security of your payment information. Is this correct?

O: Thanks for sharing that with me. One of the reasons why our long-term customers have total confidence in HAG is that we take your security very seriously and use a double secure socket layer (SSL) encryption to protect your information.

C: If it would make you feel more comfortable, I can assist you on how to process the payment online yourself so you don't need to give out any of your card information. How does this sound for you?

Simplified ECOC:

That makes perfect sense! Sharing card info online can feel risky. Is it the security part that concerns you most? To put your mind at ease, we've been trusted by hundreds of thousands of customers, and the cleaners are background checked and thoroughly vetted. Your info stays secure through our system, and on future bookings we only charge once your service is booked. Would it help if I showed you exactly how the process works?

Objections - Doesn’t Want A Membership

E: I hear you. I know that saying yes to membership is a big decision…

C: My goal is to make sure that our service is the right match for you. Just to make sure I’m getting a clear picture, (Agreed Upon Value) … does this sound correct?

O: What our members love about the FC Membership is (mention key benefits to highlight value)

C: Just to make sure we’re aligned, was I able to provide more details on how we can help you with (mention Customer pain points)?
Excellent! Let’s schedule your first cleaning!

Simplified ECOC:

Totally fair! No one likes being stuck in something long-term. Are you concerned about being locked in, or just prefer to book as needed? With us, you can book whenever you want and manage your appointments anytime. It’s fast, flexible, and backed by our Happiness Guarantee. Want me to walk you through how simple it is to use?

Objections - Need to Consult Spouse

E: It's great that you're making a joint decision. It's important to make sure that everyone is on board…

C: I wanted to confirm that I'm fully understanding you so please keep me honest, (Agreed Upon Value) … did I get this correctly?

O: Ok cool! The vouchers we have are limited. And what our FC Members truly love about it is you get to enjoy your very first cleaning at a heavily-discounted rate, and (mention key benefits of FC) for all your future cleanings!

C: If it might be of interest, I'll hold on to one of the vouchers and stay on the line while you talk with your spouse. Does this work for you?

Simplified ECOC:

Absolutely, I get that these decisions are usually a team thing. Are you mostly wanting their go-ahead before scheduling, or just looping them in on the details? The cool thing is our online dashboard makes it super easy to book, reschedule, or cancel anytime, and we're here 24/7 if questions come up. If it helps, I can get everything set up and hold your spot while you check in with them. Does that work for you?

Objections – Negative Review

E: I completely understand your concerns about the reviews you've seen…

C: And I want to make sure we set you up for success. Just so I am getting this correctly, it's important for you to have your home cleaned, you're only concerned about the quality of the cleaning you'd get. Is this correct?

O: Thanks for sharing that with me. One of the things that our FC Members love and which I think truly sets us apart from other cleaning companies is that (mention one key benefit of FC).

C: Was I able to ease your concern about the quality of cleaning we provide?

Simplified ECOC:

Totally fair to check out reviews! I'd do the same. Was there something specific in one of them that concerned you? The good news is 91.4% of our jobs are done by top-rated cleaners with 4.5 stars or higher, and we collect reviews after every clean so only the best keep getting booked. We take feedback seriously. Would it help if I explained how we match you with highly rated cleaning professionals?

Objections – Not Interested

E: I can understand why you would feel that way…

C: I want to make sure I provide you with all the information you'll be needing when deciding on a cleaning service. Correct me if I'm wrong, (Agreed Upon Value) …does this sound accurate?

O: Hey thanks for clarifying that with me. Most of our customers had the same sentiments initially. They quickly see the value of the service once they had their first cleaning, in fact what they love most is (provide Value Statement)

C: Now do you see how our service can greatly benefit you and address your concern for (pain point)?

Simplified ECOC:

No worries at all! I get that it might not feel like the right time. Just out of curiosity, is it that you're all set already, or are you unsure about the service? The only reason I ask is because we're backed by the Homeaglow Happiness Guarantee and have done over 2.6 million cleanings for nearly 900,000 customers, so it's a service people have really come to trust.

Objections – Pricing Concerns

E: I totally get you. I know that cost is an important factor when deciding…

C: And it's important for me to ensure that we get the best value for your money. If I'm understanding you correctly, (Agreed Upon Value) …did I get it correctly?

O: Hey I'm glad we're on the same page. Most of our long-term customers felt the exact same way, and what they realized after their first cleaning is that (add Value Statement)

C: Did my explanation of how our FC Membership brings your cost per cleaning well below industry average help? Let's review our terms and lock in your first cleaning!

Simplified ECOC:

I get it, price is always an important factor. Are you comparing us to a specific competitor or just in general? What makes our pricing unique is that we offer high quality service while keeping costs low by trimming extra overhead. Our size lets us pass savings to you, and we're super transparent about the rates. Would it help ease your concerns if I break down exactly what you'd be getting for the price?

Objections – Competitor's Prices

E: Of course. I hear you that cost is an important factor…

C: I want to make sure that we are the right match for you. Correct me if I'm wrong, you find value in our service and are just not sure that we have the most competitive price. Is this correct?

O: While you might find lower prices with other providers, our service stands out for (mention benefits other than cost). Our focus is on providing our customers quality cleaning which often leads to long-term value for our customers.

C: Did my explanation of how our FC membership help bring your cost per clean well below industry average help? Let's review our terms and lock in your first cleaning!

Simplified ECOC:

That's definitely worth considering. Are you comparing based on price alone, or also on reliability? Our rates stay low because we've cut out the bloated overhead, and our size lets us offer better service at a better value. Plus, if a cleaner cancels, we've got instant backup, which most competitors can't promise. Would you like me to go over how the pricing can save you significantly?

Objections – Thinks This is a Scam

S1: I totally get you. Usually when the price is really good, it's also a cause for concern. Can you share what specific part of our service makes you feel hesitant?

S2: I hear you. In fact, most of our customers who felt the same way you do in the beginning are the one who had someone working for them in the past. Have you had past experiences with another cleaning company that have contributed to your concerns?

S3: Totally fair. It's smart to be cautious with things online. What part feels off to you, if you don't mind me asking? We've actually been in business for over 10 years, and every cleaner goes through background checks. On top of that, our work is backed by the Homeaglow Happiness Guarantee, and we've helped nearly 900,000 customers. Hopefully that gives you a little peace of mind. Would you feel better if I walked you through how it works?

Objections – Wants To Pay In Cash

E: I appreciate you sharing your preferred method of payment

C: I want to make sure we go by your rules. Correct me if I'm wrong, you would feel more at ease if you didn't have to give your payment card information over the phone. Am I getting this right?

O: I totally understand. In fact, most of our long-term customers initially had the same concerns but quickly see the value on why we only accept card payments over the phone for convenience and security reasons. If it's helpful, I can assist you on how to process the payment online yourself so you don't need to give out any of your card information.

C: Would you feel more comfortable processing the payment at the comfort of your own home while I have you on the line? Great! (walk through via website)

Simplified ECOC:

I totally understand, some people prefer the simplicity of cash. Is that more about budgeting, or just personal preference? Our system is fully digital for security and ease, and it helps keep things organized for both you and your cleaner. Plus, you've got 24/7 support if anything ever comes up. Would you be open to giving the dashboard a quick look to see how smooth it is?

Objections – Will Not Use the Service Often

E: Hey I appreciate your sharing that with me.

C: I want to make sure that you're getting the most out of your service with us. Correct me if I'm wrong, it's important for you to have your home cleaned, you're just concerned that your might not use it often, is this correct?

O: What our FC Members truly love about is that FC offers flexibility with (mention the ability to manage appointments via Dashboard), so you can tailor it to fit your schedule. Additionally, even if you use the service less often, the membership often provides cost savings and added benefits that can be worthwhile.

C: Was I able to ease your concern about how FC membership fits into your schedule? Let's set up your cleaning!

Simplified ECOC:

I hear you! Some folks just need the occasional clean here and there. Are you looking for something super flexible, or just don't think you'd need it often enough? What's nice is our system is totally on your schedule -you can book as needed, and we make rescheduling super easy. Plus, if a cleaner ever cancels, we've got backup coverage ready to go, which most local services can't offer. Would you like me to show you how easy it is to use when you do need it?

Objections - Not At This Time / I'm Not Ready To Book

E: Hey I completely get you. I understand life can get busy and sometimes it feels that there are other priorities.

C: I want to be sure I capture what truly matters to you. If I'm understanding this right, you see value in having a regular cleaning service, you're just not sure if it's a great time. Did I get this correctly?

O: Thanks for sharing that with me. One of the things our long-term customers love about their membership is the flexibility it gives (mention Dashboard and flexibility). In fact, we can make a standing appointment on (future date) – you can change the date once you decide when to have the cleaning, and rescheduling is free.

C: Does this make you feel more at ease now knowing that you have full control and flexibility when managing your appointments? What date would you like to have your cleaning?

Simplified ECOC:

That makes perfect sense. It might just not be the right time. Is it that you're still deciding on timing or just not ready to commit? The great part is you're in control with our online dashboard -you can book, change, or cancel anytime, and we're available 24/7 to help. Would you like me to walk you through how easy it is to use?

FAQs – Are your cleaners bonded and insured?

S1: Every Cleaning Professional on Homeaglow has passed through extensive certification and strict criminal background check. And while we do not provide insurance, many of the Cleaning Professionals joined Homeaglow having operated their own cleaning businesses and many choose to carry their own bonding and insurance.

S2: You would be delighted to know that while the Cleaning professionals who get onboard the Homeaglow platform are independent contractors, they all go through extensive certification and strict criminal background checking. This gives you the peace of mind knowing that the person you let in your home is someone who has gone through strict screening.

FAQs – Can I book an appointment for tomorrow?

Normally we recommend a 2-day window to allow the CPs to take the appointment.
(Try to confirm if C will agree to book 2 days from today).

If no:
We will do our best to schedule your cleaning for tomorrow. However, please keep in mind that we can't guarantee a cleaner will be available on short notice.

To ensure we can accommodate you, it might be helpful to provide an alternate date that works for you.

FAQs – How can I get the same cleaner for all of my upcoming cleaning appointments?

I get you! It just makes things a whole lot easier if it's the same person every time. And you would be happy to know that you have the option to book the same Cleaning Professional for all your appointments simply by logging in to your dashboard.

However, please keep in mind that this is still subject to the cleaner's availability, as they may have other commitments. We recommend booking in advance to increase the chances of securing your preferred cleaner. If you have any questions or need assistance with the booking process, feel free to reach out!

FAQs – My bank flagged the company as a scam and won't approve any future transactions using their bank

(Ask for another card)

Thank You for bringing this to our attention. I'm sorry to hear that your bank flagged our transaction. We understand that this can be frustrating, and I want to assure you that I'm here to work with you until this gets resolved.

If you're comfortable, you might consider using a different payment card for this transaction. This could help resolve the issue quickly and ensure we can complete booking your first appointment with us.

(If no other card, offer to call bank)

I'm sorry to hear that your bank flagged our transaction. Sometimes banks use strict security measures to protect their customers, and this can lead to misunderstandings.

If possible, I can stay with you on the line if you want to contact your bank to clarify the situation. They may be able to adjust their settings to allow transactions with us to go through.

FAQs – What cleaning tools or supplies will my cleaner bring?

S1: You don't need to provide anything. Cleaners generally bring their own equipment and supplies.
If you'd like your cleaner to use your own products, that's possible too. Just let them know prior to your appointment.

S2: You are not required to supply anything. Typically, cleaners bring their own cleaning tools supplies. It's also an option if you want your cleaner to use your own supplies, or if there is a particular cleaning product you prefer them to use during the cleaning. Simply inform them before your scheduled visit.

FAQs – What happens if my cleaner is late or doesn't show up? Who do I contact?

S1: I can understand why that would be a concern. All the Cleaning Professionals are thoroughly vetted and have gone through extensive screening. You would be happy to know that in the rare event that they arrive late or failed to show up to your appointment, we have a 24/7 Customer Support Team to help you. Just let us know and we'll be glad to rectify it for you.

S2: I hear you. It would really be concerning if they arrive late or failed to show up to your appointment.
The beauty of booking with Homeaglow is that you get direct contact with your assigned Cleaning Professional once they claim your request.

You will see their information on your dashboard, including their phone number, in case you'd like to contact them before the cleaning. Alternatively, the cleaner may also contact you before your scheduled cleaning date

FAQs – What if I’m not happy with my first cleaning? Will I get a refund?

S1: That makes perfect sense. Here at Homeaglow, your satisfaction is our top priority. This means that after your cleaning appointment, and you feel that your expectations were not met or something isn't to your liking, please let us know and we have all the checks and balances to help rectify that for you.

S2: Hey, I get you! Most of our long-term customers had the same concerns initially. All of the Cleaning Professionals who get on board the Homeaglow platform have gone through extensive certification and go through regular reviews based on customer feedback and ratings. This means you get only the top-rated professionals to clean your home. Now if after the appointment you feel that your expectations were not met or something isn't to your liking, please let us know and we'll be happy to take care of it for you.

FAQs – What is included in the cleaning service?

S1: Here at Homeaglow, we want to make sure that no corners are left untouched. A standard cleaning with Homeaglow includes wiping down and sanitizing surfaces, vacuuming and mopping floors, cleaning and sanitizing sinks, showers, and bathtubs, tidying, and removing garbage.

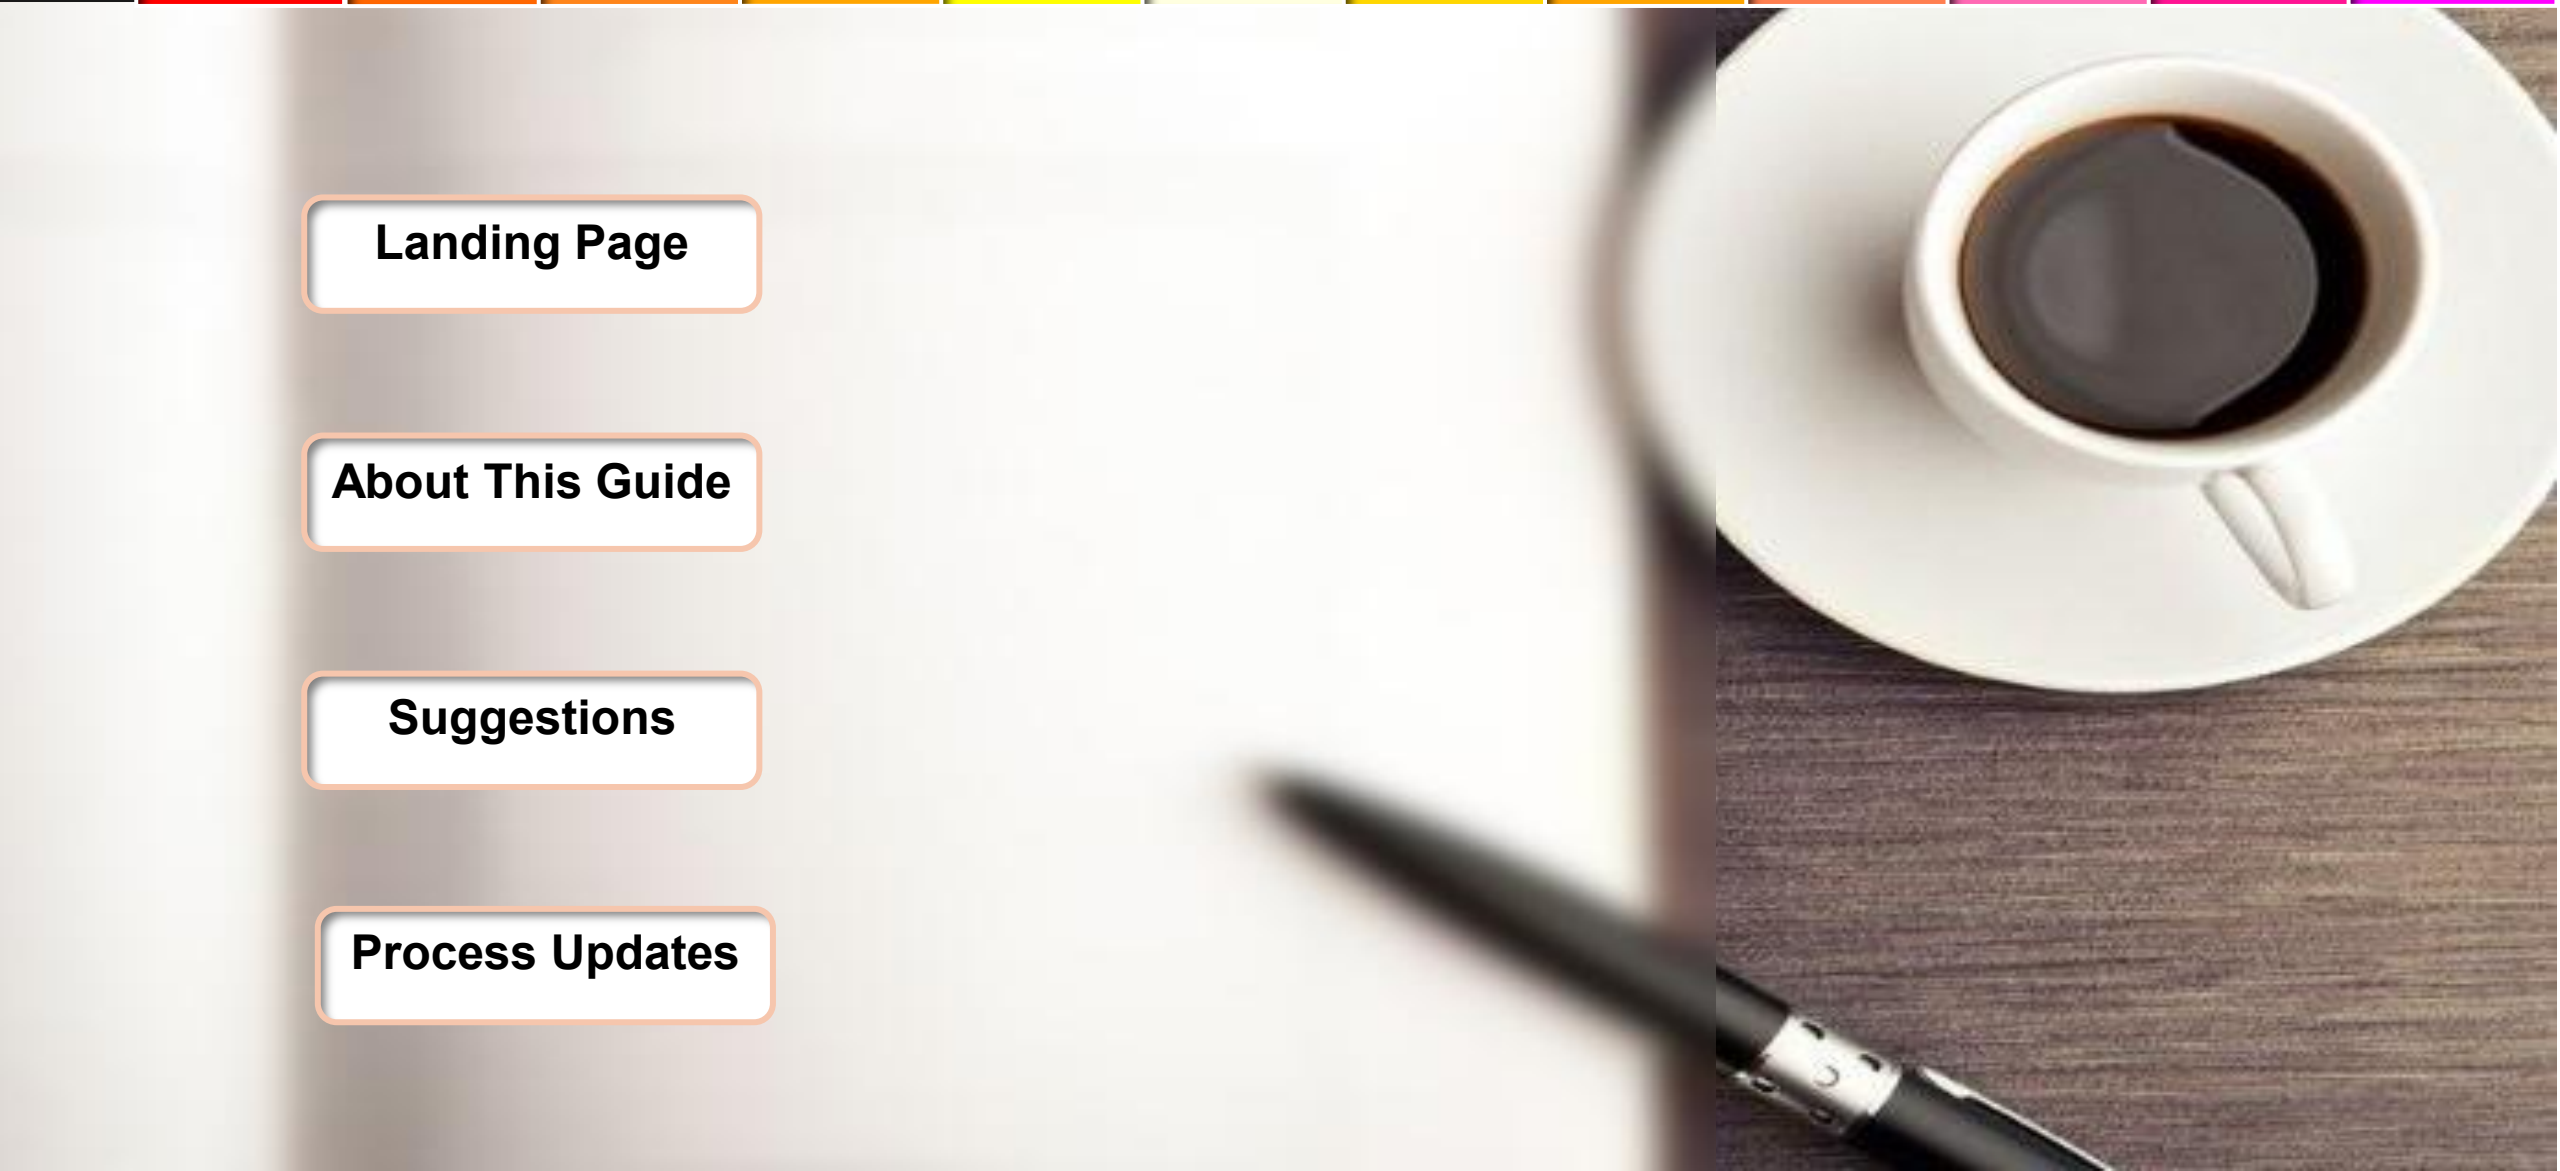

S2: We take care of everything from top to bottom! Vacuuming, mopping, dusting, wiping of surfaces, bathrooms, kitchen sinks, we even take out the trash for you! We want to make sure that everything is sparkly clean, and that no corners are left untouched after the appointment.

FAQs – Will it be a $23/hr cleaner rate for all my future cleaning appointments?

S1: What most of our members love about FC is that their subsequent cleanings cost as low as $23/hour, a savings of up to 50%compared to local average rate when enrolled in the ForeverClean membership.

S2: The majority of our members love FC because, when enrolled in the ForeverClean membership, their subsequent cleanings are as little as $23/hour, saving them up to 50% over the average charge in the area.

About This Guide

The Call Flow guide is a useful resource, but it's meant to be a guide, not a script. You can use your own words to enhance the customer experience, but ensure you accurately represent the context of the sample text. Any text highlighted in red must be read verbatim.

Consider the guide a roadmap for navigating conversations, but always be prepared to adjust your approach based on the unique needs and personality of each customer. Stay flexible, listen attentively, and trust your instincts to customize the interaction, fostering a positive and successful experience.

Creating Manual Charges for Trials and One-Time Cleaning

Handling Customer Service Concerns

Updates - Process Update

To prevent penalties for non-Booking Proper, we are implementing the following new process:

- All Agents must leave notes in Hubspot after every interaction
- When handling a ticket/lead, all agents are required to read the last three (3) notes.

See Other Updates

Updates- Creating Manual Charges for Trials and One-Time Cleaning

When creating a manual charge for trial and one-time cleaning appointment, agents must use the standard reason on CRM/Agent Facing Descriptor. Please see below:

- For Trial Cleaning: Trial_Cleaning
- For One-time Cleaning: One_time_cleaning

Why is it important to standardize the CRM/Agent Facing Descriptor?

Standardizing the CRM/Agent Facing Descriptor will help our engineering team generate accurate reports. Having multiple reasons leads to inconsistencies, which disrupts the reporting system for our department.

FAQ:

Question:

- What if the manual charge is an adjustment because the customer changes their mind about the hours of the cleaning appointment?

Answer:

- There's no need to specify whether the manual charge is for an adjustment. The important thing for our engineering team to know is whether the manual charge is for a one-time cleaning or a trial cleaning.

Updates - DNC Requests

Please be reminded that if you receive a customer request of the following nature, you should tag the lead as "CLOSED - DO NOT CALL AGAIN" in HubSpot:

•"Please do not contact me again."
•"I want to opt-out of future communications."
•"I am on the Do Not Call list."
•"Remove me from your mailing or calling list."
•"I no longer wish to receive updates or promotions."
•"Do not message/call me anymore."
•"I have changed my mind; please stop contacting me."
•"I do not consent to receive marketing messages/calls."
•"Please respect my privacy and do not reach out."
•"I want to be taken off your list."
•“STOP”

Failure to comply with our DNC policy constitutes a violation of our Level 3 Zero Tolerance Policy and will result in the following penalties:

- 1st Instance: Final Warning (NTE)
- 2nd Instance: Suspension (5 days)
- 3rd Instance: Subject to Termination

Updates - Handling Customer Service Concerns

PROCESS CHANGE

Here's what to do when you receive an inbound call from an existing customers (e.g. customer concerns with after sales about refund/job issues):

- For Inbound Calls:
  - Aircall:
    - Step 1: Suggested Script: Hi Mr. Customer, you've reached the sales department. Unfortunately, we don't have access to customer accounts, so I'm unable to assist with your concern. I'll transfer you to our customer service team, and an agent will help you. If there's a long wait, you can leave a message with your concern and phone number, and a representative will get back to you within 24 to 72 hours.
    - Step 2: Transfer the call to Aftersales and Acct Mgt
  - Hubspot
    - Ticket Disposition
      - Status: Closed as Do not call again
      - Sub -status:
        - Do not call again because this is already an existing customer

IMPORTANT NOTE:

- This file is no longer active, and agents are not allowed to log tickets here: CS Concerns from FC Sales.
- Do not make any promises to the customer regarding the approval of their refund and/or cancellation requests or that a customer service representative will assist them shortly.
  - Why?
    - Refund and cancellation requests are not guaranteed to be processed immediately. We have a retention process in place, where our aftersales department may offer options to retain customers before proceeding with such requests.
    - Our aftersales team is not available 24-hrs a day, 7 days a week. To set proper expectations and avoid further aggravating the customer, inform them that a representative will get back to them within 24 to 72 hours if the wait time is long.

Updates - Premium Upsell

We recently launched an experiment where eligible new customers will be prompted to select their preferred “Level of Experience Cleaners” during booking.

Depending on the customer premium_redemption_upsell cohort, they will either see a $10 or $20 pricing for the Premium option.

As an FC Sales agent, what’s in it for me?

We are NOT required to offer the 'Premium Upsell.' However, due to this change, we must be very careful when processing trials or one-time cleaning appointments.

- If the Level of experience field is grayed out, do not select anything. If you’ve accidentally clicked an option, make sure that this field is set to Standard.
- On the 2nd step of the booking flow, make sure that the Cleaning prices section is set to Regular Price.
